

Carson-Newman Bands

Fall Semester 2008

Class: MUS 010A Marching/Concert Band
1 semester hour credit
Schedule: M, T, W, Th 4 - 5:10 PM, Music Building 117
Instructor: Dr. Marshall Forrester, MB 124
Office Hours: 9 - 4 Weekdays
Contact: 471-3331, mforrester@cn.edu

Objective:

- To provide students with an understanding of a wide variety of musical styles and musical conventions drawn from the finest band repertoire, and provide performance experience as both a means complementary to this end and as an end unto itself

Secondary Objective:

- To support broader goals of the College and Music Department

Grading Policy:

- Grades are ultimately determined by the ratio of your performance achievement to your ability during the semester. Since the instructor will stop at no end to help you perform to the best of your ability, and since the vast majority of students will work diligently toward the objectives outlined above, grading will largely revert to attendance requirements. However, attendance is not a guarantee of your grade in this class.
- Excused absences will not be granted for any avoidable conflict. Examples of avoidable conflicts include, but are not limited to, work schedules, car repairs, regularly scheduled medical or dental appointments, meetings, haircuts, etc.
- Excused absences will be granted for emergencies only. In order for an absence to be excused, the instructor must be notified in advance. (471-3331). Examples of excused absences would be personal sickness or death in the family. Excused absences for sickness will be granted with a call or note from the infirmary or personal physician.

Unexcused Absences	Highest Possible Grade
0 or 1	A
2	B
3	C
4	F and withdrawn from class

- Class will start on time for every rehearsal. Two tardies or early dismissals count as one absence.

- An unexcused absence from a dress rehearsal or performance will result in a grade of "F" for the semester and an automatic withdrawal from the course.

- A personal calendar in which band and other events for the school year are recorded is a class requirement. Dr. Forrester will check your calendar on the second week of class – this counts as two attendance grades for the semester.
