

Romeo and Juliet: True Love Opinionaire

Directions: Read each of the following statements. Write A in the column under "you" if you agree with the statement or D if you disagree with it.

Statement	You Before Reading	Characters in the Play	The Bard	You After Reading
1. People who are in love often do foolish things.
2. Physical attraction must precede true love.
3. People who love each other are best friends.
4. Children have a duty to love and obey their parents.
5. Children cannot experience "true" love.
6. You should not do anything to make the person you love unhappy.
7. All's fair in love and war.
8. If you truly loved someone, you will not be attracted to someone else.
9. Love at first sight is possible.
10. Love is blind.
11. Love never changes.

